Jack has Down's syndrome is autistic and attends Court Meadow school. However, during the school holidays, it is difficult to keep him fully occupied. He loves music and the answer was to get Jack a specialised computer that is touch controlled and the Lion's Ladies offered to help his mother purchase it.

Gordon Judge and Terry Fell of Wolfcat Computers were approached and they had the right equipment and offered the Lion Ladies a discount. The computer was presented to Jack and his mother by Angela Hogman and Jack is now a happy lad. Anna Cowie, Jack's mother says "I think this will be a wonderful opportunity to enhance Jack's independence and thanks the Lion's Ladies for their help"
