LIONS' LADIES FUND TODDLERS PUSHCHAIR 'ACCESSORIES'

Two-and-a-half-year-old Xavier Kingett, who suffers from dystonic cerebral palsy, has recently been provided with a custom made pushchair by the Health Authority, but this did not include a raincover, sun canopy or a buggy board for his twin brother Zac to ride on. The East Grinstead Lions Ladies agreed to fund the purchase of these essential 'accessories' for Xavier and his brother.
