Fashion Show

On Friday, 24th March, Broadleys celebrated 110 years in East Grinstead, by hosting, in conjunction with East Grinstead Lions Ladies, a Fashion Show, to launch their new Spring Fashions to include designers such as Tina Taylor, Olsen Lacoste and Timberland.

Thanks to Richard Taylor, the new Headmaster of Stoke Brunswick School, over 130 guests had the privilege of dining in the magnificent C15th Great Hall, where professional harpist Helen Arnold accompanied the models, and Caroline Long giving a recital.

Together with the raffle, prizes which were kindly donated by local organisations and the fashion designers themselves, over £1,200 was raised and will be shared between the Lions Charities and The Jessie Fund, a charity whereby disabled children learn to communicate through music and rhythm.

The organisers wish to thank Wright Hair Studio for styling the models hair and Alan Bond for photographs.

The event was a great success and everybody is now asking when the next fashion show will be.
