"It's a Knock Out"

On Wednesday 23rd May East Grinstead Lions Club hosted a day of fun for disabled folk. The event was organised by the Caterham, Oxted and Godstone Lions Club and 5 teams of 8 participated. Everybody enjoyed the fun and all joined in the games with enthusiasm. During the lunch break they enjoyed a disco provided by the MC. Barry Alston.

Also present were representing East Grinstead Council Town Mayor Cllr. Ian Dixon, Mid Sussex District Council Chairman Cllr. Mrs M Hearsy and the Vice Chairman Cllr. Clive Chapman.

The winning team this year was the East Grinstead Gateway Club who were presented with the Lions "It's a Knock Out" shield by the Town Mayor Cllr. Ian Dixon. Each Team received a shield for their efforts and all participants received certificates of achievement. The Gateway Club produced the winning Joker and they received a The Best Joker shield from Council Chairman Cllr. Mrs Hearsy.
