Knockout is a winner.

NEARLY 50 competitors from six organisations took part in the annual It's a Knockout for disabled people at the Kings Centre, East Grinstead last week.

Town Mayor Christine Mainstone attended and helped with the smooth-running of the event which was hosted by East Grinstead Lions Club.

With the town members were Lions from Horley, Reigate and Redhill; Caterham, Oxted and Godstone; and Biggin Hill and Westerham.

Gateway took first place and other teams from the area were Larchwood Leopards who were third and the NYCPE Governors.

MC Barry Alston, who is a DJ at the Royal Marsden Hospital was helped by Lion Stan Hognan in creating a party atmosphere with disco music and dancing.

All teams were awarded a trophy and each competitors received a certificate of achievement presented by the Mayor and Lion zone chairman, Sally Marsh.

Lion Jim Miller told the East Grinstead Courier: "This event is becoming well established and the Lions find it most rewarding for the pleasure it gives to those with various disabilities."

He gave special thanks to the carers as well as the management and staff at the centre for their help.

With acknowledgements to the 'East Grinstead Courier'.
