16 June 2005

On June 16th East Grinstead Lions Club took a party of ladies to Duddeswell tea room.

The ride took them around the Weald via Cowden, Chiddingstone, Penshurst and Groombridge.

The combined age of the 11 ladies was 906, the youngest being 83 and the eldest 95.

During the tea many recalled their experiences during WWII with a variety of occupations from welding at a munitions factory in East Grinstead to packing syringes and morphine for emergency use by the troops on active service.

All agreed that they had had a lovely afternoon trip in spite of the dull weather. This was the first outing organised by the Lions and from the response of the Ladies it won't be the last.
