East Grinstead Lions Club celebrated their 40th Charter anniversary at the Ramada Plaza, Hotel, Gatwick on Saturday 4th October. The Town Mayor Cllr Ginnie Waddingham and the District Governor Lion Jacquei Prebble were guests of Honour. The Mayor complimented the Lions for all they had done for the Town over the years, mentioning the Annual Mayfair senior Citizens party and sponsored swim. There were 136 partygoers, including Charter Member John Rainsley, who enjoyed a wonderful evening and raised over £300 in the Raffle. For the occasion the Lions wore Red Bow ties.
