Town Lions Sponsored swim for charity attracts 28 teams.

Twenty-eight teams took part in the Lions' annual Sponsored Swim at the King's Centre in East Grinstead on Saturday 18th November.

Competitors of all ages took part to raise money for their clubs and charities, which included a team entered by the Town Mayor, two teams from East Grinstead Football club, Yarborough Play Group and St Mary's Church amongst others.

Roger Mead, spokesperson for East Grinstead and District Lions Club, said "provisional figures show that in excess of £6,000 was pledged during the swim"

East Grinstead Lions wish to thank the King's Centre for their cooperation in organising the event and the young lifeguards who attended, without whom the event could not take place.
