Lions deliver a dashing moment.

At EXCELLENT steering and speed control resulted in a successful trolley dash for the winner of East Grinstead Lions' raffle.

Care worker Janet Cole made a lightning two-minute trip around Safeway in East Grinstead on Monday morning, grabbing £231.97 worth of Christmas food.

Janet made the dash on behalf of her friend, ticket winner Janine Delaney of Lingfield.

Lion Alan Howson said Janet's performance was the best by a raffle winner. "She really went round there. I have been involved in the raffle for 10-12 years and she was the best yet."

Proceeds from the raffle, run by the Lions outside Martells in the run-up to the Christmas Shopping Day, will be used to fund the senior citizens' party for 250 people at Sackville College.

Mr Howson thanked Safeway, Martells and other local businesses for their support.

With acknowledgements to 'The Observer'.

Members and their ladies enjoy superb views across the Sussex Countryside from the terrace of East Court Manison.
