Age Concern

Age Concern at Swan Mead was presented with a 50 inch, flat screen television by Mid Sussex District Council. The television, however, required a wall bracket to support the television and flexible enough to be able to angle the television for all to see. The centre manager located the ideal equipment and asked the Lions for help. The Lions Ladies decided that this was a project they could support and paid for the bracket. On Friday afternoon the Margaret Hersey, Chair of Mid Sussex District Council and Angela Hogman, wife of the Lion President, attended the unveiling of the television on its bracket and were able to see the benefit of the donations.
